

Meet the Tennis Pros at Gates

Niko Kabylafkas

Speak Greek? Even if you don't, Niko can talk your language. The language of improving your game. A meticulous stroke master, Niko can provide technical advice on all aspects of your game and make you smile while doing it. A guaranteed great time and improvement to your game. $65

Kyle Thornhill

A specialist for you! A pure student of the game, Coach Kyle has risen to the top as one of Gates best coaches for someone focusing on fundamentals. Everyone can use a review of the basics. Coach Kyle specializes in players 4.0 and below. Beginning to intermediate, you've found your Coach! $55

Ricardo Castromalaga

For the last twenty five years Ricardo has been teaching tennis around the world in Canada, the Caribbean, South America and the United States. Ricardo, skilled in both hard courts and red clay, is from Peru. He can teach you an all-court game in English or Spanish and is comfortable teaching a beginner to even the highest ranked juniors. Ranked as high as #5 in Peru as a junior, Ricardo, most recently from California, can bring your game to the next level! Gates is lucky to have this International sensation. $55

Kent Waryan

Looking for an energetic instructor? Look no further! Former director and head pro at Lakewood Country Club, Kent brings over 30 years of experience and an up-beat tempo to the tennis court. His infectious smile and enthusiasm for the game will keep you on your toes and ready to learn and improve your game. Sign up with Kent today! $55

Michal Kaczorowski

As top junior in Poland he was recruited to come to the US for college. While attending school in North Carolina he won the 1999 North Carolina State Open Championships in doubles. Michal will teach you the Federer forehand and a serve that will scare your opponents off the court. Strategy and tactics are always on his mind so if you want to improve and have fun, book a lesson with him. $55

Carey Brading

Learn tennis from the a former New Zealand junior champion, All-American college player, and Colorado State Open Champion. Carey's "down under" humor, boundless energy, and extensive knowledge guarantees a great lesson! When not teaching tennis you might find Carey on the dance floor doing the Cha-cha or West Coast Swing. $60

Paulina Janus

Paulina Janus

As a former touring pro, Paulina - who goes by "Paula" - says her career highlight was representing her native country of Poland in the Fed Cup Championships. During her professional career she also competed against well known players such as Nadia Petrova, Daniella Hantuchova and Anna Kornikova. For a great tennis lesson and to bring your game up a level, book a lesson with Paula. An expert in European fashion, Paula can help you improve your game, and you'll look good doing it! $55

Ed Skarwecki

Ed Skarwecki

Ed is legend in Colorado. A former satellite circuit tennis pro, he has twice been a finalist in the Colorado State Open and has been ranked #1 in every age division in Colorado. Beginning, Intermediate, and Advanced – Ed has seen it all and can help you improve. If you take a lesson with Ed, ask about Chris Evert. $55

Doron Popper

Born in South Africa, but considered Australian having lived in Sydney since he was 16 years old, Doron is a fiery and energetic tennis player and tennis professional. He brings endless enthusiasm to his lessons. Doron is a family man with a wife and two sons, who he enjoys seeing when he is off the tennis court. He grew up playing tons of tennis in various Australian tennis academies, consistently playing national level tournaments. Doron prides himself in being able to teach anyone how to play great, fundamental tennis, from complete beginner to nationally-ranked player. $65

Dan Dicke

Coming to Colorado as a former Tennis Facility manager, Dan brings an overall knowledge of the tennis industry. He has quickly earned a reputation at Gates for his quick wit and legendary lessons. With twenty years of tennis experience, Dan has been called the Tennis Doctor, capable of remedying even the worst habits. Put your faith in Mr. Quick Tips and never look back. $55

Chris Minihan

Chris Minihan

Chris as a junior trained at IMG/Bollitari Academy, John Newcombe Tennis Academy, and with other world renowned tennis legends. Competitively he played #1 in both singles and doubles at the University of Northern Colorado and then professionally. During and since this time he has been teaching tennis. His love of the game is contagious. Whether you are striving to hit a 140mph serve or just to hit the ball over the net, Chris is the man for the job. $55

Jeff Salzenstein

Jeff Salzenstein

Which one is true? A. Jeff has beaten Fernando Gonzales. B. Jeff has been ranked Top 100 in the world. C. Jeff graduated from Stanford and has been featured numerous times in full page articles in the New York Times. D. Jeff played before a national television audience in prime time against Michael Chang in the US Open Trick Question....all of the above are true. And much more. Jeff is a great touring pro, a great teaching professional, and an even greater guy. For a lesson contact Jeff at info@js-performance.com