ROBERT LEONARD

Robert currently competes in both singles and doubles at the 5.0 and Open Pro level. He is a student of the game, dissecting both the micro and the macro, and is PPR certified. He excels at technical analysis of every shot, from the serve to the drop shot to the top spin roll and everything in between. Robert believes in purposeful pickleball: understanding exactly what each shot accomplishes, what the 'job' of each part of the body is, and how to anticipate your opponent's next shot - setting you up for the one-two combo.

While technically a Denver native, he grew up in San Diego with a strong background in tennis and paddle tennis before finding and falling in love with our favorite fast-paced, strategic sport: pickleball.
