

PICKLEBALL PROGRAM FLYER

AMERICA'S FASTEST GROWING SPORT

PICKLEBALL PROS

UNLOCK THE SECRETS OF PICKLEBALL WITH A PRIVATE OR SEMI-PRIVATE!

ROBERT LEONARD

Robert Leonard is a 25 year old PPR® Certified Coach who has been teaching pickleball privately in Santa Barbara since his certification. He has a passion for the game, the growth of individual players, and the growth of the pickleball community as a whole.

He grew up playing paddle tennis, played Varsity tennis in high school, and studied Finance and Economics at SMU. He is coming to Denver to share his passion for coaching and pickleball with the wonderful community of Colorado.

$80/hr (for up to 6 players; as low as $13.33 a player)

*Discounted price of $60 for a private lesson.

CHASE STOKES

Chase Stokes grew up in central Virginia playing basketball, soccer, and football. In between school and practice he would play hours of ping pong with his dad, this is where his love for pickleball began.

As a player he participates in tournaments across the country and enjoys playing on the weekends at local parks in the Denver area. As a PTR pickleball coach he enjoys working with all skill levels from beginner to advanced, his favorite pickleball skills to help improve are court positioning, 3rd shot drops, and serves.

In his free time he likes to ski, play poker, and golf. Looking forward to working with you soon!

$80/hr (for up to 6 players; as low as $13.33 a player)

*Discounted price of $60 for a private lesson.

MARIO BOSCHI

As a son of Italian immigrants, Mario has an inspiring work and playing ethic in whatever he does. Mario's professional pickleball philosophy regarding success has never been focused purely on monetary gain, but rather the development he sees within his pickleball students and clients.

Mario's foundation of a successful pickleball coach/instructor enlightened leadership, collaboration and open communication, which leads to a better pickleball player. Mario is certified in the Neuropickleball Trained Coach/Instructor team where he travels across the country, bringing you the best in neuroscience-based performance and pickleball teaching for beginners to elite pickleball players.

$80/hr (for up to 6 players; as low as $13.33 a player)

*Discounted price of $60 for a private lesson.

BRYAN EVERHART

Bryan Everhart has spent the last few years as a Pickleball Instructor, Coach, and Tournament Player. He loves working with players of all skill levels to improve their fundamental skills and strategic awareness. Bryan has coached many competitive tournament teams at events around the country including the National Championships.

He enjoys organizing and operating Pickleball Camps at private clubs and residences while traveling for tournament play. Nothing is more rewarding for him than to see "a light bulb turn on" with his clients during instruction or coached play, those game changing moments when something just clicks! Bryan is very excited to meet and work with the Denver Community this summer.

$80/hr (for up to 6 players; as low as $13.33 a player)

*Discounted price of $60 for a private lesson.

- The initial private or semi-private lesson must be scheduled at the front desk and payment will be required before the scheduled lesson is booked.
- Package deals for multiple lessons are not currently offered. Each private or semi-private lessons will either be $60/hr or $80/hr, respectively.
- Private or Semi-Private lessons will be canceled in the event of inclement weather, which will be at the discretion of the pro and/or management.
- Semi-Private lessons may not exceed a maximum of 4 people. Please see the front desk or ask management about booking multiple pros.
- Pickleball lessons with any pro who has not been expressly approved to teach at Gates Tennis Center are not allowed. Please consult management.

Check out more...

GATESTENNISCENTER.INFO

303.355.4461

frontdesk@gatetenniscenter.info

